About Me

I am a convert to Catholicism, having been received into our Holy Catholic Church after many years of journeying through Protestant faiths and, at times, other religions. Jesus, however, kept my heart and held it near His, though I so often tried to push Him away. Eventually, He showed me where He is most truly present: in the Sacraments of His Holy Church. A year and a half after my Baptism, God has called me to this incredible journey of seminary. He's asked me to trust Him entirely, and I am doing all that I can to reply with, "Jesus, I trust in You!"
