

First Year Seminarian

Kristopher
Kiniry

About Me

Kristopher Kiniry is starting his propaedeutic year as a seminarian for the Diocese of Pueblo at St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Nebraska. Born and raised in Washington state, Kristopher spent his summers with his relatives in Pueblo. After serving as a Builder in the Seabees for the United States Navy, Kristopher worked in construction until increased prayer and adoration brought him to discernment. His favorite saints are St. Damien of Molokai, St. Francis Xavier, and St. John Vianney. Kristopher enjoys working with horses, playing golf, attempting to play the guitar, and praying the rosary.
